

Support Center

For cPanel & WHM version 60

(Home >> Support >> Support Center)

The Support Center contains several links that allow you to access cPanel & WHM support features.

Resources

Use the following resources to help you administer your system and resolve issues.

- cPanel & WHM Frequently Asked Questions — Answers to questions that customers frequently ask about our company and our website.
- Support Forums — The cPanel Support Forums.

Notes:

You must register with the cPanel Support Forums and log in to post content in the cPanel Support Forums.

- WHM Documentation — Documentation for the WHM interface.
- cPanel Documentation — Documentation for the cPanel interface.
- cPanel TV — Videos that cover advanced topics about cPanel & WHM administration.
- @cPanelTips — The cPanel Tips Twitter feed.
- cPanel Release Notifications — Add your name to the cPanel, Inc. mailing lists.
- cPanel News — Review the latest information about cPanel, Inc.

Contact cPanel

Use the following links to contact cPanel to help you resolve issues.

- Submit a Support Request — This link opens WHM's Create Support Ticket (Home >> Support >> Create Support Ticket) interface. This interface allows you to create a new cPanel support request.

Note:

$body

- Grant cPanel Support Access — This interface allows you to configure access to your server for an open cPanel support request.

Additional documentation

Suggested documentation For cPanel users For WHM users For developers

Content by label

There is no content with the specified labels

Content by label

There is no content with the specified labels

- cPanel Migration Services and Guides
- Feedback for Tickets
- How to Open a Technical Support Ticket
- Technical Support Services
- How to Authenticate your Server for cPanel Technical Support

Content by label

There is no content with the specified labels

